Just Centro's Opinion...

Welcome to Bankside Close, Carshalton - a charming townhouse that offers the perfect blend of space, comfort, and convenience.

This delightful property boasts four bedrooms spread across three floors, providing ample space for a growing family. The two bathrooms ensure that there's never a queue during the morning rush, while the newly refurbished interior exudes a fresh and modern feel.

Situated in a peaceful area in Carshalton Beeches, this townhouse is just a short stroll away from the train station, making commuting a breeze. The convenience continues with parking and storage available in the Garage.

The newly decorated interior features new flooring and a stylish kitchen complete with appliances, including a dishwasher, range cooker, and American-style fridge freezer. The double glazing and electric heating add to the comfort and efficiency of the home.

Families will appreciate the proximity to St. Philomena's School, St. Mary's, Stanley Park Junior and Infants School, and All Saints, providing excellent educational options within reach.
